

Judith Angeline Urban

December 18, 1942 - December 17, 2024

Judith Angeline Urban, born on December 18, 1942, in Hamtramck, Michigan, to Theodore and Angeline Urban, passed away peacefully on December 17, 2024, just one day shy of her 82nd birthday. Mother to Kellie Czuchaj Rouhib and D. Dawn Maxwell. She was a devoted grandmother to Ava (Alex), Steven, Kristen (Eric) and Scotty. Beloved great-grandmother to Delilah, whose presence brought her endless joy. Judith was a dear sister to Robert (Carol) Urban, David (Barbara) Urban and Norman (Okansa) Urban. Her family remembers her as a vibrant spirit with a love for music, frequently filling rooms with her singing and skillful piano playing. Eccentric and spirited, Judith was known for her social nature and her zest for life. She was the life of the party, always ready to enjoy a good laugh and a toast with a drink in hand. Her wit, warmth and love of a good time left an indelible mark on everyone she met. Above all, she loved and celebrated her family, cherishing every moment spent with them. A visitation to celebrate Judith's life will be held on Friday (December 27th) at the Wm. Sullivan and Son Funeral Home (3Blks E. of Van Dyke) Utica, from 12pm until the time of sharing of memories at 3pm embracing Judith's life as she did-with laughter, love and a song. Please share a memory on her tribute page.

“ Judith was like a second mother to me over the years. She helped so many it is astonishing. Her and my mother Barbara were thick as thieves. So blessed to have had her in my life. Thank you Judy, you will be missed.

Was truly saddened to hear of Judith's passing. Will remember her warm welcomes and big smiles when Kellie and I would hang out back in the day. She was a vibrant and caring lady, who I know will be truly missed.

“ My mother Gloria is having a cocktail with Judith and J. O. as I'm posting! We all had a ball at the Riverhouse on the Detroit River, my sister Colleen (me) Carole always hung out at Sinbads, the Eastern Market and the Riverhouse bar that John Travis and J.O. owned! I lost touch with Judith after moving to FL for work but she will always be in my heart, and the fond memories we all shared together! Rest in peace Judith until we all get together again!
