“ Judy's passing has left a space, an absence, in so many lives. All those who knew her, whatever their memories of her, will never forget her. She worked with children and seniors and allowed me into her world. She gave me opportunities for experiences I never would have had. She'll be missed not only by people but also by pets, the birds she fed, and yes even the flowers. I see her in things around me. I hear her voice. I miss her Ted

“ Judy, Rae and I were friends in high school and beyond. Judy and I had so many adventures -- We briefly reconnected with her about 7 years ago. Judy cared for Rae's elderly mother and helped me care for my mother. We were surprised and saddened to hear about her passing away. We both hope that she is dancing with the angels now. “ Judy was truly a sweet and kind lady. I knew Judy socially but got to know her much better when I painted her home. She was happy to have her home looking nice and it was truly our pleasure to help her do it. All the little dishes of food for the homeless critters in her side yard were proof of her kind heart, though no proof was needed. I'm sure her many friends, her family and all her animal friends will miss her so much. I hope her many dear friends and family will think of the happy and good times and be consoled. Judy it was a honor and a pleasure to know you. May you rest in peace. Gary & Steve

“ My deepest sympathy to everyone who was near and dear to Judy's enormous, loving heart. Although we lived miles apart, we've been friends for more than 35 years, through good times and bad. I was fortunate to share some wonderful moments with Judy on two visits she made to me last fall. I'm so glad we had that time together. I picture Judy dancing in the heavens, at peace. This poem reminds me of Judy: When I die Give what's left of me away To children And old people who want to die. And, if you need to cry, Cry for your brother and sister walking the street beside you. And when you need me, Put your arms around anyone And give them What you need to give to me.

“ Deepest sympathy to the Nims family. I went to school with Judy and to Borgo Sisters, we were great friends for many years. I remember Judy and I doing a tap dance in front of our 5th grade class. Tights & tutus....we thought we were it....Sorry to hear she is gone, so young. You are in my thoughts, Sue Memmer Bieneman
