“ Mrs. Demuynck was a second mom to most of my younger siblings and a dear friend of all the Buchanans, Will and Mary with Hugh and Betty for years on Goldberg. I got to know her because of her daughter Sue. Sue and I were good friends all through Jr. High and High School.

Mostly, I remember this wonderfully kind, soft spoken woman who seemed so joyful. Mom and Dad's stories of the Demuyncks at parties and practical jokes they played on each other were legendary. Heaven brought an angel home. We are poorer as the world lost a "quiet" saint in our midst.
