“ Sweet, kind Julie, this is Paul. November 23, 2013 You have been a great spiritual counselor to me and, also, one of my best friends. You told me we are in your prayers: Not knowing the spiritual world that well, I hope that you have even better connections now that you are in the "ear" of the Spirit for my and Patricia's needs. I took your advice and got the Sarah Young devotions and it is helpful. I think of you, your parents and sister, as well as my parents and brother, all in heaven, usually when I say The Lord's Prayer. Dear Geyer Family, my sister Thea Prince called to find out how Julie was doing and learned of her death, then let me know. I did read her obituary. I extend my sympathy to you and also my joy that God has received Julie home and she is at Peace. My wife Patricia and I just returned from Lake Leelanau for my 79 year-old aunt's funeral and have a DVD of the service which I hope will comfort us a little when dealing with your mother's death. Paul Fredrick was my God-father, so I know I met all of Julie's children when we were all younger. When I last communicated with her, she said how blessed she was to have her children around to support her. God bless you even more at this time. Around Thanksgiving it was easy to say of Julie, her parents and sister: "When I count my blessings, I count you twice." In late October I sent Julie a magnet with a starfish and this verse, "Tides may change but friendships last forever." Philippians 1:3: "I thank my God every time I remember you." Whenever I drive with bright sun in my eyes, I'm reminded of Julie's parent's and sister's car driving into a sun-blazing fatal accident with a truck. Julie and I lost loved ones. Now we all will miss Julie; but I am so excited about the Great Reunion!

“ Dear family please accept my deepest sympathy for your loss of your dear mother Julie . I can only imagine how her smile will be missed. God's promises in Revelation 21:4 that soon "...he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.â? As the weeks pass may reflecting on the fact that â??Jehovah is near to those that are broken at heart; And those who are crushed in spirit he saves.â? Psalms 34:18. I pray this helps your family as it has mine during loss.

“ I remember fondly cousin Julie from all of the fun times we had growing up in southern Michigan. Her presence at the holiday family reunions always made those occasions special to me. We always had a lot of fun together. I know she was strong in her faith and is now smiling down from a better place.

“ Julie and I are cousins. It is impossible to think of Julie and not smile. Everyone was 'worthy' in Julie's eyes and that is a wonderful legacy. I loved that gal. Nancy Anderson

“ Julie and I share the same birthday, she being 6 years older than I. We always had a good time chiding each other about it. Lots of memories of going to Detroit and spending time at Julie's house with her sister Carolyn and their parents. I am very glad that my son Martin and I got to Detroit last summer to spend time with Julie. She was a very strong woman with a strong faith in the Lord. I can only hope my faith is half as strong. Every year on our birthday my thoughts will be with her. Julie I will miss you very much but know you are dancing with your Mom and Dad and Carolyn. Your cousin Ann

“ My heart is very heavy with sadness in learning of Julie's passing today. I had the great pleasure of working with her for several years. Always had a kind word and a beautiful smile to share. There are so many wonderful memories that I cherish. We lost you much too soon Jules, but heaven has acquired a sweet and spirited angel. Go in peace my dear friend!!

“ I feel very deep sadness today that our dear Bible Class friend will no longer be with us. We rejoice that you are no longer struggling and are with our dear Lord in your heavenly home. Julie and I bonded through conversations and visits during our trips to Flint together for her treatments. She touched me very strongly - she was a great woman of faith and a very inspiring person to know. I will miss her deeply as will many others. I know there will be many moments when I will think of her and look forward to seeing that smile again when we meet in Glory!

“ Julie was my cousin and although we did not get to visit a lot I remember her love of life and gentle nature. She truly tried to live as Christians should and passed on her faith to her family. She is Home now with our Lord Jesus. Julie, will see you again someday.

“ I didn't know Julie as a close friend but was in choir with her for many years at Bethesda Christian Church. She always had a wonderful smile and gracious way about her, and the same with Laird. I was sorry to hear of her passing but know that she is in the Heavenly Choir now, and with our wonder Lord Jesus!

“ Julie was a dear friend. We met in the choir at Bethesda Christian Church many years ago. We've got together for long lunches and shared a common bond of love and friendship. Julie and I shared wonderful conversations on our trips to Flint for her treatments this year. She is always so gracious and kind in all her ways. I just love her to pieces. When I left her Saturday night I said I won't say goodbye, I'll say, See you later. I know where she's at and I'll see her again someday. In the meantime, she will be greatly missed. It was my honor and privilege to know her and call her 'friend'.

“ Julie was my paternal cousin who I saw only occasionally growing up as we lived about 100 miles apart. Her parents were fine Christians, and raised their 2 daughters also in the faith. We enjoyed our visits with the family in Detroit, and their visits at our home in Pigeon. Julie and Laird as Christians also raised their 3 children as God-fearing individuals. Because of our belief that Jesus died and rose for our sins, I have the certainty that Julie is in heaven, and that I will see her there one day also. Joanne Fredrick Bergman
