“ To all of the Kennedy heritage, including Reeds and Depews and Carpenters and many others, God be with us to comfort us as we remember Julie. I remember her as strikingly beautiful like her mother. Wish I had known her better. She's gone too soon, but joins our Lord and lots of happy souls who have gone before. I can see them all dancing and toasting and even having a smoke or two together. God is good...all the time. Chris Carpenter Cannon

“ Dear Teri, I'm so sorry to know that you're going through another sad and difficult loss, and I pray that God holds you close during this time. Your writing about Jule was so beautiful, I felt like I knew her like I know you. And after reading that heartfelt eulogy. I wished that I, too, was a Kennedy woman! You are blessed to have a legacy of strong, compassionate and wise women. I'm grateful to have benefitted from their legacy in my friendship with you. Love, Polly

“ Julie, I have thought of you often this week and I'm thankful for the many happy memories you have left with me. Most of my memories are about the kind and thoughtful acts you were always performing for others. I always admired and respected you for the heart felt compassion you so often showed. You made no distinction between someone you may have known for years or someone you may have known only a few hours. Your reaction was always the same; you saw a need and tried to make someone's life a little better, a little happier, a little less sad. Your acts of kindness always served as a reminder that I too needed to do more for others. So I guess I should add 'teacher' to the memory book I will always have of you. Thank you for enriching and making my life better too. See, Love Ya, Bye Lynn

“ Jule was my angel. She was always loving and kind, giving and gentle. Her laughter was infectious and her hugs full of love. I love her and will miss her for awhile. But, I know our God, who loves us all, will reunite us in his love. God's peace on all who read this.
