

Julie Ann Lamb

November 20, 1958 - May 31, 2011

Lamb, Julie Ann. May 31, 2011.

Beloved daughter of William and the late Betty. Dear sister of Gretchen Barber, Bridget Alan Smith, Larry Teresa, Criss Linc Walworth, Mart, Jim, Terry Maher and the late Colleen. Nephews, Ryan and Colin Lamb, Drew and Grady Walworth. Visitation Friday 11:30 a.m. until time of service 3 p.m. at the Wm. Sullivan & Son Funeral Home, 705 W 11 Mile Rd. 4 blks. E of Woodward, Royal Oak. Memorials to Beaumont Rose Cancer Center appreciated. Share your memories at www.sullivanfuneraldirectors.com.

Tribute Wall

DS

“ We are so sad to have lost Julie. We did not think of her as a family friend or the best friend of our mother but as a part of our family. I remember all the wonderful meals and chats around Prairies dinner table that we shared for a number of years. I especially loved all her sweet baked treats she would make. Chocolate cake, yummy. We shared a common sweet tooth for sure. She was so warm, joyful & sweet and we loved her dearly. She will be so missed. All our love to your family during this difficult time. All our love The Schaefer Family Darien, Pamela, Lorynn & Ethan

Darien , Pamela, Lorynn & Ethan Schaefer - March 25, 2015 at 12:00 AM

MA

“ I have to echo Maureen's words in that I never saw an ounce of self pity or frustration in Julie about her medical situation, she was always interested in others, enjoying life, curious, caring and enthusiastic about life, God Bless Julie and the family! :-

Margaret - March 25, 2015 at 12:00 AM

MD

“ Dear Julie... I am happy that this long, long battle is over for you... but I will miss you. I will smile when I remember our coffee's at the French Patisserie in Birmingham... pouring over your beautiful jewelry designs... and your infinite patience when I would say, "This is perfect. I love it. Could you make it with a longer chain?" Julie smirking I will miss your quick wit, mischievous smile, easy laugh and gentle, generous heart. Over all these years you never complained... and we all would have understood if you had kicked, screamed and pitched a fit. But I witnessed none of that behavior. You are the bravest person I've ever known. Thanks for including me in your circle and sharing so much.

Maureen Dailey - March 25, 2015 at 12:00 AM

PS

“ love u love u so.....

Pamels Shults - March 25, 2015 at 12:00 AM

KJ

“ So sorry to hear of your loss. I know God will comfort you in this tough time!!! You are in our thoughts and prayers. Scott and Kathleen Russell Anderson Justin

Kathleen Justin - March 25, 2015 at 12:00 AM

MP

“ To The Lamb Family and Julie's loved ones: I am so sorry about the loss of someone so dear. I will pray for the family and friends in the days and weeks to come. It was such a pleasure to know her and be her friend!! God Bless! Margaret

Margaret Preston - March 25, 2015 at 12:00 AM

MS

“ A Poem for Julie by Michael Shults A witness died, a witness died, a one who could've testified of who I was not so long past before so many die were cast. The memories lost, of better times of better me and better rhymes of narrow means of work and wait in hope and faith of future date of what we had on brilliant days the green and blue of ocean waves of poignant youth all wasted now of who's of whens and wheres and how intentions gone with future plans for catching up and shaking hands for giving comfort standing pat the chance has come and gone for that our stories locked behind a door in emerald eyes that shine no more.

Michael Shults - March 25, 2015 at 12:00 AM

SL

“ Walking in the bluebell woods, camping in the rain in the Peak District with Freya's class, going shopping "danger, danger!" You would say. Drinking mojitas in my kitchen: just a few of the precious memories I have of you dearest friend. You no longer walk this earth with me but you will ALWAYS be in my heart. You are one special Lady, Julie, one of the bravest I have known. After your long fight, may you be at peace. Right now, my tears are falling but the memory of you will forever stay fresh and when the Lilac which you so loved is out once more, I will dance in joy for the joy you gave me with your friendship. My heart goes out to all of your family, but especially your Dad. So sleep in peace while the Angels watch over you. 'til we meet again precious friend. I will always love you Sarah from leafy Chipperfield in the UK

Sarah van Lessen - March 25, 2015 at 12:00 AM

MD

“ I met Julie working at the Somerset Inn & I caught up with her after she moved to CA. She was such an amazing person and I hold her dear in my heart. Many fond memories...working the night shift at the inn, after our work was done we would hang out on the roof or sneak a swim in the pool....leaping from cliffs into a river on Mt. Baldie.....watching Julie throw a shoe at her grandma for good luck as she went to play bingo.....Julie in a big floppy sweater....julie at dance lessons...mostly Julie's smile - always touching my heart. Miss you Julie

Marcia Doran - March 25, 2015 at 12:00 AM

CK

“ I will never forget all the happy, wonderful times we shared playing our flutes in band, cheer leading, making glass candy at your kitchen table, your amazing sewing skills and when you came on vacation with my family to the cottage. My heart is broken this morning.

Carol Maclean Kern - March 25, 2015 at 12:00 AM

VL

“ It's so sad to have Julie leave us so soon. However, it is time to celebrate what she brought to us. For me she was sunshine of happiness, always smiling and laughing. I truly am blessed to have had her as a friend and will miss her but will always keep her in my heart.

Valerie Larke - March 25, 2015 at 12:00 AM