“Julie was my Godmother. I remeber everytime I would see her she always grab by cheeks and give me a big kiss. She was a fun and loving lady. She will be missed by many. When we were little we would go to Saucer park with my counsin Cindy and have a picnic. Rest In Peace

“Dear Randy and family, My heart goes out to you all during this difficult time. I have many fond memories of hanging out with Cyndi and sitting at Julie's kitchen table. She was one of my favorite "Moms" during my teen years and I will never forget her. Stay strong and know that you will be reunited with her one day. With Love, Beth Heath and Family

“ How precious you were to me and my family, all these years, always there with a huge smile and a hug. You would hold my face in your hands and give me a big kiss, just like Grandma. Always making me smile. There are many things I will miss, mostly just you! May you rest in Peace. My love to the whole family, Randy, Steve, Lori, Cyndi, Craig, and all the Grandchildren. Love you all. Kelly xoxox

“ Dear Steve, Lori and Cyndi, My heart goes out to you in your time of sorrow but at least we know your mother is no longer suffering and is singing with the angels. I can still remember her sweet smile and caring nature. Keep her memory close to your heart and she'll never be far away. Love, Aunt Shirley

“ She was my friend...Looking back on the years gone by can I say, which was the best? Each year to her, was special the last is her eternal rest. My dear friend, has journeyed on to be with her special friends and family. She will sing, with the angel choir and the music, will never end. We will miss you dearly Julie.

“ To Julie's Family - You may not know us, but we are Julie's Wednesday Night Bingo Buddies. We all loved her for her courageous fight and determination to overcome the big "C". We will forever miss her smiling face and presence on Wednesday nights. She was an inspiration to us all. Perhaps she will find a bingo game in Heaven.

“ Dearest Mom, You were the most amazing woman I knew. You had the kindest heart and everyone that met you feel in love with you on the spot. I Thank You for making me the Woman, Wife and Mother I am today. Thank You For Being the most Amazing GrandMother our Children could ask for. I will FOREVER have a HOLE in My HEART, that can never be filled. GOD took you too soon from us but he must have His reason, so I guess i will have to try and be as strong as you would have wanted me too. I Love You Mom and will Miss You forever. Until I See You Again Love Lori
