“ When we moved from Canada to the U.S. in 1998, my mother asked her youngest sister, if she would look out for me, and she surely did! We had so many good times together going for lunches and dinners, shopping, and walking around the block of her neighborhood following her heart surgery. Always keeping in touch by phone and cards of special occasions, Birthdays, Christmas, Easter & Mother's Day. Goodness knows we both spent hours in the Hallmark Store. My deepest condolences to the Whitnell Family. I will miss my Aunt June. Mary Jane Cosgrove & Families.
