“ She use to scare the hell out of me when she was drivinh but oddly that is something i will miss... Yes her favorite color was pink but i remember gow she started to get into how everything had to be michigan colors. That maze and blue. Lol. Me and her prayed together on a couple of occasions but i hate that we lost contact. Love you and miss you kaitlin... Rest in paradise. ED.

“ Dear Maureen, Jeff, Perry, Erin and the entire extended Family,
We can't even fathom the pain you must all be feeling. We can only hope the memories of sweet Kaitlin will help you through. Our last memories of Kaitlin were when we visited and met all our MI cousins, second cousins Aunts and Uncles as we all celebrated Aunt Lois and Uncle Jims 50th. Anniversary. Erin, Shelly, Kaitlin and all the second cousins dancing and laughing, and Kaitlin showing of her gymnastic skills at Aunt Lois and Uncle Jims. She amazed us all with her perfect splits! Happy, Fun loving and always smiling are the memories we will treasure. Hope it helps to know you are all in our thoughts and prayers at this difficult time.
With Love and Sympathy, Mary and Ken Elsaesser and Family

“ Yes, Kaitlin sure did wear a lot of pink! She had a pair of fuzzy, fur pink booties. Also, she liked to accessorize with "bling". I would be reminded of a joke: "I want to be just like Barbie, that broad has everything. I like pink, too, but because of it's breast cancer awareness, as I'm a 10 yr survivor. Kait would sport U of M's blue & maize colors. Another chuckle is how Kait always wanted Jaden's shoes to be color-coordinated with his outfit, for the day. We both had designer tastes on oatmeal budgets, but that didn't stop us from dreaming. Funniest memory: Kaitlin was picking Jaden up, from my house. As we opened the front door, there was a shiny ray of light, reflecting from the floor. We looked down, at our feet, simultaneously, and started laughing. We were both wearing our sparkly, silver, sequenced slippers. Love you, kiddo!

... friends, and anyone eles I forgot to mention. Mostly, love & prayers to Kaitlin's son, Jaden, who I have known, since birth. I feel as if we are "chosen" family and treat Jaden like he my own nephew. It is a term of endearment, when Jaden would refer to me, as "his" Debbie. Please know, Jaden, there will be times when you are sad because your mommy died, you may even get mad that she went to heaven so young, and you will cry tears she's not home. But, your mommy's love will be in your heart, wherever you go and whatever you do. There will also be times when you think of mommy's smile, her laughter, making cookies together, going places, doing fun activities, or just resting, quietly, side by side. You can talk to her anytime about your day, tell her you love & miss her, or say, "Thanks, mom, for giving me birth". Your mommy will be in heaven, smiling down on you, whispering, "That's my son, Jaden. I'm so proud of him. Take care of yourself, young man, because mommy loves you, forever!"

Remembering Kaitlin as the sweet, bubbly, beautiful little girl with an infectious smile whom I had the pleasure of spending oodles of time with many moons ago, when I began my daycare.

Kaitlin, I am wishing you all the peace, happiness and contentment that surely comes with traveling from heavenly star to heavenly star. May your love always shine down on your family and friends as you are remembered in our thoughts and prayers. May God hold you forever in the safety of His loving arms. With love, Aunt Jane
