“ I had the distinct pleasure of coming to know 'Kay' Sidick when her daughter, Donna and I became room mates back in the seventies. Kay was always upbeat, had an energetic personality that just drew you to her. I remember her hair was always perfect, with lipstick in place, her smile was genuine. She was as they say, "Beautiful inside and out!" I was welcomed into this family with open arms...much of the summer was spent poolside at Betty's, sunning, swimming and Yummy "Family BBQ'S". Both Betty and Kay making sure you were having a fun time! I always admired the loving relationship between Donna and her Mom. Something I strived for if I was lucky enough to have a daughter one day. Over the years, when I spoke to Kay on her Birthday, I would always thank her for the greatest gift I had received, a timeless friendship with her daughter Donna. Kay knew exactly what I meant! How Wonderful a Mothers Love. How Wonderful a Daughters Love. Boundless Joy for Each! With Much Love and Blessings Always, Mary xxxxx
