

Kathleen M. Murphy

April 20, 1943 - August 5, 2024

Kathleen Mary Murphy passed away Monday at her home in Clawson.

Kathleen was born on April 20, 1943 to John D. and Dolores (Knaggs) Murphy, the third of six children. She grew up in Royal Oak and graduated from Immaculata High School in 1961.

For over twenty years, Kathleen was a letter carrier for the U.S. Post Office. Every customer on her Royal Oak routes knew that Kate was the best - 'over and above' was her style every single day.

Kathleen was an exceptionally generous person. She loved Irish music and enjoyed sailing, gardening, and solving crossword puzzles. And not only crosswords - she never found a word game that she could not master.

Kathleen is survived by her siblings Shane (the late Mary Ellen), Sheila, Bridget (the late Jack) Waldvogel, and Timothy (Elizabeth). She is revered as the favorite aunt of more than thirty nieces, nephews, great-nieces, and great-nephews.

Kathleen was preceded in death by her brother Michael (the late Joanie) and her great-niece Eleanor Murphy.
