

Kathleen M. Musclow

January 8, 1922 - December 24, 2016

Musclow, Kathleen, age 94, a resident of Huntington Woods for more than 40 years, passed away December 24, 2016. She was born January 8, 1922 in Renfrew, Ontario, Canada to the late John and Stella Dow. After high school Kathleen aspired to join the Canadian armed forces during World War II. Instead, she opted (with some family persuasion) to take up work as a typist at her local northern Ontario newspaper while the young men served abroad. While working at the newspaper she met her match, Eric (d. 1995). They married October 9, 1948 in Kirkland Lake, Ontario and shared 47 years together.

Kathleen was known for her independent spirit and active lifestyle. While living in Ontario she played on champion softball and ice skating teams. Kathleen was a dedicated member at the Detroit Curling Club at both its Detroit and new Ferndale location up until her 80th birthday. She also enjoyed bowling and keeping an eye out for the many birds that would visit the feeder outside her home.

Loving mother of Wendy (the late Joseph) Haykus; and dear sister of the late Shirley (Jack) Logan and Fay Dow. Kathleen will be also be missed by her long-time tabby companion, Simon.
