“ John, Janice, Robbin and family I remember I could not wait to go over to Uncle Roy and aunt Bernice's house because it was always a happy place to visit. Aunt Bernice was always so happy and fun to be around. Even in her picture she has such a beautiful smile I will continue to remember her with this beautiful smile as I celebrate aunt Bernice's life and I pray that you will have very happy memories also as you see her with Jesus.

“ This is my grandma. She was the glue of the Amell family. Christmas was always held at her house for 35 years. It was special. Something I looked forward to every year. She made it special. But my favorite part was this is where I learned to cut the grass and repair things in the house. I did this with my dad for 20 years of my life. I learned respect, love and appreciation for the small things in life. The memories are too much to share but most of all I will share with you that she always looked for the best in people no matter what. I love you grandma. Your in my heart forever. Rest In Peace. I will see you again in your new garden. But not yet...
