“ I recall my grandmother’s sweet embrace and warm smile during car rides either along the Oregon Coast or Lake Erie. Her attention to fashion, boldness (purple pants!), visiting me for my graduation in San Luis Obispo, and endearing little acts of kindness will be remembered.

Death must be so beautiful. To lie in the soft brown earth, with the grasses waving above one’s head, and listen to silence. To have no yesterday, and no to-morrow. To forget time, to forget life, to be at peace” – Oscar Wilde

*Love,
Brandon*

“ Beautiful; Beautiful Kay! You were always a breath of fresh air to me. I so admired your style and the Glide you had with life. We spent so many hours on the phone just reviewing life and you left me with the feeling that forward gear was all that you were capable of. I will always think of you as AMAZING!!
I will miss the sound of your voice; the sweet little chuckle, and our sharing of many memories. I Love You Kay

“ Aunt Kay, I won't miss you so much. You are my godmother and my friend. When I moved home 10 years ago you and my mother included me in your outings. John 14:1-3 "Let not your heart be troubled. Believe in God, believe also in me. In my father's house are many rooms. If it were not so, would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you? And if I go to prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, that where I am where I am you may be also. And you know the way to where I am going." Rest in Heaven Aunt Kay. I love you and I will miss you so much. Jan Crawford

“ My mother- law Kay was a sweet and caring lady, with a good sense of humor. I remember coming home from work early one morning, she was putting on makeup in our downstairs bathroom. As I entered the home, I saw her white powdered face in the mirror, yes a bit frightening for me. We both had quite a laugh, she said I scared her, we'll she scared me more. I will miss her greatly, she was a friend and caring mother to me. RIP Mom, hopefully we will cross paths again someday.

“ I will miss you mom. I love you and will always cherish the times we have shared together. I know you are now in heaven where there is no more pain and there is eternal life. May you rest in peace.

Here is a poem for you mom:

Death must be so beautiful. To lie in the soft brown earth, with the grasses waving above one's head, and listen to silence. To have no yesterday, and no tomorrow. To forget time, to forget life, to be at peace.
