“ My Mom was the sweetest soul you could ever meet. Never an unkind word about anybody. Always concerned about her kids and grandchildren. When I was a young child going off to school everyday, my Mom would always give me a kiss before I left. If for some reason I did not get that kiss, I would think I was going to have a bad day. I think about her in Heaven with my Dad and my son Andrew. That gives me a great deal of peace and comfort.
