“ So sorry I cannot be there-still out of the country. My thoughts and prayers are with all of you. A wonderful man and uncle. He will be missed by many.

“ On behalf of my mother Martha, and myself, we would like to express our heartfelt sympathies to the Finnerty family. Keith was a gentleman in truest sense of the word. We are proud to have known him. Keith was one of my father's (Gordon Sullivan), dearest friends. They were both proud members of Clawson American Legion Post 167, where they were nicknamed "Double Trouble"! for reasons best left out here. A true American patriot, and sports fan. I had the pleasure of attending both Tigers and Lions games with Keith and my father. I also had the pleasure of watching numerous games at the Clawson and Royal Oak Legions while enjoying a "few" beverages with him. May God Bless his memory, his family, and may he Rest in Peace.
