“ I am so sorry for your loss. The grief of losing a loved one can be great but, God gives us comfort and a greater hope in the Holy Scriptures. I hope that you can take comfort in his promises found at John 5:28, 29 and Isaiah 25:8. Please accept my condolences.

“ Our sincerest sympathy to the Jason family. I knew Keith from working together at Detroit Edison. We played softball together, along with Keith's brother Kevin. Have good memories of Keith and those days. I knew Keith & Kevin's father, Leonard too. So, remember the good times and memories. Again our sincerest sympathy to the family. Don & Bethany Gaffke
