

Keith Meadows

July 9, 1954 - September 21, 2025

Keith C. Meadows, age 71, of Royal Oak, passed away on September 21, 2025. He was born on July 9, 1954, in Mt. Clemens, Michigan to the late Charles and Lois (Fairfield) Meadows.

Keith was the proud owner of Rep Worx in Royal Oak, a food packaging manufacturing company, where he worked alongside a devoted team who became like family to him. His work ethic and entrepreneurial spirit were matched by his creativity and zest for life.

A lover of music, Keith enjoyed concerts of many genres—whether it was Pat Metheny, the Beatles, Paul McCartney, oldies, or modern-day favorites. He also had a passion for writing, especially poetry, and cherished opportunities to express himself through words. Golfing was another favorite pastime, but nothing brought him greater joy than time spent with his beloved granddaughters.

He was the loving father of Brielle (John) Tyle, Mackenzie (Shane) Schanski, and the late Alicia Meadows; proud grandfather of Avrielle and Sophia; and dear brother of Colleen (the late Michael) Pisa and the late Gail (the late George). He is also remembered by his former spouse, Marie (Mark) Dyer.

The family extends heartfelt gratitude to Keith's Rep Worx team, who were truly like family to him and a constant source of support.

A celebration of Keith's life will be held on Thursday, October 16, 2025, from 5:00–8:00 p.m. at D'Amato's Italian Cuisine, 222 S. Sherman St., Royal Oak, MI 48067. Share your memories at www.sullivanfuneraldirectors.com.

“ Although I went to the burial, I couldn’t bring myself to speak. I’m the emotional type, and when I’m deeply close to someone, I know I’d break down before I could finish a sentence. But I still want to share.

Several hours after his first brain surgery, he briefly woke up. He recognized me and softly said my first and, as most of my closest friends don’t even remember my middle name: “Theresa Lanni.” In that moment, I thought, he’s coming back to us. Then he said, “Grab a pen and paper.” I rushed to get one, and as I sat beside him, he began listing names of his immediate family. He started with Marie, then said the names of his living daughters: Brielle, Mackenzie, his granddaughter’s were next, Avrielle and Sophia... and then once more, Marie again.

It touched me deeply with understanding because even in that fragile moment, his heart was still wrapped around the people he loved most. I asked, “What would you like me to write to them?” In that moment, he could only manage two words: “Tell them.”

Those were among the last clear words he ever spoke, and even then, his thoughts were with his family. His love for them, his devotion, and his concern never left. And even though he may have sprinkled fairy dust over everyone he met, I’ll always remember that day how even in his final moments, his thoughts were for his family. That was who he was: loving, unselfish, and so full of heart. His friendship is to be treasured by all who knew him.
