“ Ken was a dear friend and co-worker of my father. They hunted together for several years. It was my honor to join them for 2 years. He was a true gentleman.

“ I have just learned of Mr. Lockwood’s passing. He will be greatly missed. He truly was one of the best of “The Greatest Generation”. He was like an uncle to me. My dad, Ken, Dick Paulison, Tom Septer and Calvin spent many memorable Deer hunts together in northern Mi. Although I don’t hunt, being able to listen to their stories at Rocky’s Roadhouse after the hunt ,will remain some of my fondest memories.
Ken is Truly in God’s country now.

“ I have known Mr. Lockwood since I was a child. My parents became best friends with Ken and Clare for many many years. They live down the street and around the corner from us. Ken even helped my dad get a job in the Design Staff department at G.M. We all went to Florida once for a family vacation. I remember that like it was yesterday. I also remember the Corvette he had. Not sure of the year but it was a classic! He would take Lori and I for a ride to the local mom and pop store occasionally to get candy.. I never appreciated that car until I became much older. He was soft spoken and I never heard the man yell. He truly was a great guy. Rest in peace Mr. Lockwood...until we meet again. Pam House VanHollenbeck

“ I have to say this man was one of the most unselfish man you would ever meet in your life. He loved his wife of 69 years so much. That doesn't happen nowadays. He put his family first always and still had plenty of time to help friends. He has so many friends from different walks of life, people he's touched. I am so grateful to you Dad For helping me to raise my three boys as they didn't have fathers. You took the role of father to them seriously and were so good to them dad. This man suffered frostbite in the Korean War but the hardest for him was the pain he suffered each and every day from the Shrapnel that was intertwined in his brachial plexus. This pain was constant and yet I never knew it when I was a kid. He never complained he learned to live with it, even at the end he had so much pain and yet when the nurses or doctors came in and asked how he was doing he said pretty good. He was such a man of integrity and most importantly he loved Jesus. He's the most amazing man I know on this earth. My father was so handsome and I miss him desperately. I will see you again dad 💔💔💔💔💔💔💔💔💔💔💔💔
