

Kenneth Charles Barber

April 30, 1942 - October 14, 2021

Kenneth Charles Barber

Born April 30, 1942 in Detroit's east side.

Died October 14, 2021.

Ken was a devoted man. He knew how to prioritize his loves. He was greatly devoted to his spouse of 57 years, Mary Jane. They were inseparable and traveled often. He modeled that devotion to his children, Jeffrey and Karen and to his 5 grandchildren, Andrew, Adam, Anna Ruth, Ava and Landon. He spent as much time as he could with them and enjoyed meals out or at family gatherings over holidays.

Ken was preceded in death by his parents Charles and Geraldine and brothers Richard and William. He is survived by brother James.

Ken was a man of God. He grew up and remained a member of Guardian Angels Church in Detroit until moving to St Clair Shores in 1984. He was involved as an usher and various events at the church. He been a member of St Lawrence Catholic Church in Utica since 2002.

Ken liked to golf. He liked spending time outdoors with friends, especially in Rochester or his former home in Pt. Huron. An avid reader, Ken poured over every work of Louis L'Amour and Tom Clancy.

Ken liked to travel. He and Janie went to Florida for some time on the beach each winter and took big trips to Hawaii, Branson and Yosemite to see the mountains.
