

Kenneth Joseph LeHue

September 11, 1933 - February 5, 2024

Kenneth Joseph LeHue, age 90, of Warren, passed away on February 5, 2024. He was born in Detroit to the late John and Mildred LeHue.

Ken proudly served his country in the U.S. Army from 1956 - 1958. Soon after returning to Michigan, he married Madeline ("Lynn"), the love of his life, on October 17, 1959. As they began their family together, Ken embarked upon a long and fulfilling career as a machine tool electrician.

Ken's keen intellect extended beyond his profession. Friends and family affectionately referred to him as "the genius" for his prowess in solving crossword puzzles, a hobby that he particularly enjoyed. He took comfort and satisfaction in the richness of words, always seeking to broaden his vocabulary and sharing his passion for language with others. And Ken's fondness for Oreo Cookies was boundless, so much so that he could rightfully be deemed an Oreo aficionado when it came to this particular indulgence.

Ken was also an avid baseball fan, who always enjoyed cheering on his hometown Tigers. Yet, amidst his professional and military endeavors, and his favorite pastimes, Ken's greatest source of fulfillment came from his devotion to his family. Ken was deeply involved in the lives of those he loved the most, and he was an unwavering source of support and guidance to his children and grandchildren. He will be dearly missed.

Ken is survived by his beloved wife, Madeline "Lynn" (née Tyminski), to whom he was married for sixty-four years; his loving children: Ronald (Renee), Donald (Heidi), Yvonne, and Dianne; his dear grandchildren: Henry (Korrie), Joanne, Douglas (Lauren), Hayley (Alan), James, Chris (Jessica), Phillip (Kathryn), Randy, Rebecca, Rafe, and Sophie; and great-grandchildren: Peyton, Millie, Genevieve, Maxwell, Chandler, Eloise, Willa, Madilyn, Levi, and Paxton; and his special nephew, Steve.

Memorial visitation for Ken will be held on Monday, February 12, from 1:00 p.m. until time of service, 7:00 p.m., at Wm. Sullivan & Son Funeral Home, 705 W. Eleven Mile Rd. (four blocks east of Woodward), Royal Oak.
