“ I worked with Kerry for many years at UofM. She was a kind, sweet, lady. We shared a love of cats, and many good times together outside of work. I hope you're riding Wickery again in heaven. Till we meet again...

“ Kerry was my "other" sister since we were 8. Best friend, Godmother to my daughter, a joy to be with. She will be remembered as a loving, warm, funny and kind person with many talents, a lover of movies, skating shows, and animals, particularly her horse, Wickery, and her many cats. She had countless friends who will have a void in their lives with her passing.. May she rest in peace. Cindy Leckvarcik

“ Kerry and I went to the School of Radiologic Technology at Detroit Memorial Hospital together in 1972. We work together for several years before Kerry went to work at U of M. I follow her to U of M in the early '90's and we remained close friends who took care of each other through many happy and difficult times for both of us. She was a gentle and sweet lady even as her illness of Parkinson's Disease progressed to the point of needing full time care.

I will miss Kerry dearly and deeply. She was a true friend.

I love you Kerry.

May her soul and the souls of all the faithfully departed Rest In Peace.

Amen.

“ Aunt Kerry was the sweetest person I know, and the best Aunt ever. Remembering all the fun times we had in Ann Arbor, MI going to the art fair, attending many ice skating shows, and all the Family Birthday parties together over the years--these will never be forgotten. We love you Aunt Kerry. -Shawn and Ken Glide,

Kerr was a loving and kind person. I worked with her at U of M. She was so thoughtful of her patients and their needs. The world has lost one of the loveliest, gentlest person that ever lived on this earth. No more health issues now, Sweetheart. Rest in God's arms.

Kerry was a good person to help you through a crisis or problem. I know this because when Brooke, Kerry's sister and my wife of 31 years passed away she helped me through our loss. It's not often that a person comes along that gets along with everyone, but Kerry did. Kerry was taken away far too soon and will be missed greatly. Love Ya Kerry Lynn. Your brother-in-law Joe and Lyd Duch.
