“ In 1988 I lived a few houses from Kevin at 409 Catalpa. Loved our talks and his great laugh...was happy to include Kev in our bar-b-ques and dinners with friends...I was blessed with his friendship...Kev, put in a good word for me in heaven - hope to see you there someday...Johnny

“ Kevin was quick to laugh & enjoyed nothing more than a room full of people. No one remained a stranger for long as Kevin wasn't shy about introducing himself. His 2 favorite bands were The Beatles and The Wailin' Jennys. When hearing either of their songs he'd break-out singing in unison. How can you not smile at that? He will be missed.

“ Kevin was my friend for many years. Saturday morning and sometimes Sunday coffee at the Royal Oak Farmers Market with Kevin, Dan and Shawn was a ritual I relied on. I will miss him. I cannot attend the visitation; I live in Alabama now. But my heart will be there with Kevin's family and friends. Linda
