“ Kevin - We had been friends for years but then we became family when our children married. We grew closer as we shared in holiday celebrations, birthdays and just fun get togethers. And then came the grandkids - 2 wonderful boys that we loved and spoiled! All through these years we have experienced your caring, helpful, generous and compassionate nature. We learned much from your strong faith and witnessed how you showed that faith in your everyday life. That faith that gave you the strength to fight for 7 years. We will miss you - there's a place in our hearts that no one else can fill. This is not goodbye, but just until we see each other again.

Love you!

You are the love of my life! We have been through so much together and you fought the cancer as long as you could. You were a warrior. You cared about so many people and helped them in one way or another. My heart aches, but I know you are in a much better place! I love you and you will live in my heart forever. God Bless you 'Sweetheart'. Until we see each other again!
