His mac-n-cheese was out of this world and he even won the coveted Birch Chili Cook Off trophy last year after many years trying.

Kevin married his best friend, Jennifer (nee Kraus) Moore on July 11th ,1998 in Williamston, Michigan. On November 6, 1999 Kevin and Jennifer welcomed the love and light of their lives, Mitchell Kevin Moore. Together they made a life filled with joy. “ The memories that will always stick with me are the days when Mitchell was very young. Kevin and I would spend hours trying beat Metal Gear Solid or Driver on the Playstation long after Jenny and Mitchell went to bed. We would both sit on the floor taking turns to beat levels in the game and laugh about stupid things in the game or in our lives. He had one of those unmistakable laughs that spread to others. I wish I had the chance to tell him how much that time meant to me, and how grateful I am for being so good to my sister and nephew. Rest well Kevin.

“ Our special times with Jen and Kevin will always be remembered fondly. We shared so many fun times over a good bourbon. It was so much fun to have our children grow up together. Kevin's sense of humor made even the longest of our children's school concerts something to look forward to. Love and prayers to Jen, Mitchell and the entire Moore family.
