

Kevin Mullin

October 30, 1970 - November 8, 2023

Kevin James Mullin of Utica, Michigan passed away on Wednesday, November 8, 2023, at the age of 53 years old.

Kevin is survived by his beloved sister, Kelly (Terry) Clark, and his cherished nieces and nephew, Kara, Allison, and Shane. He also leaves behind his fur baby, Cleopatra, who was not just a pet but a true member of the family. Kevin was predeceased by his parents, James and Katheryn Mullin.

Kevin was a man of simple pleasures, who found immense joy in the beauty of life's small moments. He had a deep love for all dogs and found great comfort in their companionship. His bond with Cleopatra was a testament to his deep affection for his furry friend. Kevin had a great connection with nature, and he often found solace by sitting beside the water, gazing at the tranquility it offered. One of Kevin's passions was fast cars, and he would light up with excitement when discussing them. The thrill of speed and the engineering marvel of automobiles held a special place in his heart. He was also an exceptional cook. His culinary creations were a source of joy for his family and friends. He loved to prepare delicious meals, especially for his loved ones, and it was in these moments that he expressed his affection for those he cared about. Kevin retired from Sterling Stamping, where he established himself as a committed and hardworking individual. His life was a testament to the values of family, love, and simple pleasures. He will be remembered as a kind and generous soul who touched the lives of those fortunate enough to know him.

“ Where do I begin.. Kevin was a dear friend of 27+ years. He was always there when I needed him. We share so many memories together long car rides jamming to music me yelling at him slow down and stop speeding. We loved eating out together and just talking. Kevin will always hold a special place in my heart. Heaven has gained another angel 🙏 you will be missed my friend

“ Kevin - We grew up together not as friends, but as family! We did everything together but nothing topped "Pentwater" and the soccer games! We had the best times there! I remember when your dad was referee for our soccer game and he threw me out!! Still loved him! I didn't know when I left your room on 4N at Troy Beaumont that would have been the last time I saw you!! You will be missed by our family and all those you touched! As I told you when I left your room for the last time..."Love you Malls Balls! Your buddy, Sam
