“ Walter I am so sorry for your loss. I have such fond memories of you and Kristine at the dining room table on outwood drive. Sipping wine out of straws and laughing. It was always amazing how she was the one making everyone comfortable. I will never forget the laughs coming out of our tight bathroom when you were always by her side no matter what. Not everyone can understand what devotion, grace and dignity it takes on both sides. I did it with my mom as you know. Be proud and be strong. Love Sarah. ”

“ When Kristine visited NYC she made everyone smile. Not just us... Starbucks workers and customers knew her name, the guys at the diner loved her. Long after Her and Walt went home, total strangers asked me “Where is Kristine today?”.

The best thing I ever saw was on a night during an icy winter sleet storm, when she got on a bus. Within a minute she was on a first name basis with the front of the bus, two minutes after that all of the cold tired passengers were her best friends. The world will miss that magic. Only love. Real love for Kristine <3
