

Lane Stolecki

February 7, 2026 - March 1, 2026

Lane Thomas George Stolecki of Richmond, Michigan, entered eternal rest on March 1, 2026, at just 22 days old. Though his time here was brief, his life was filled with immeasurable love, warmth, and meaning.

Born on February 7, 2026, in Troy, Michigan, Lane was the sweetest little love. He had the most perfect smile and the softest skin. He loved when his mama did his hair, looking at books, and listening as she read to him. He found comfort in warm blankets, snuggling close, and drinking his baba. He especially loved hearing "You Are My Sunshine" and being held close in Mommy and Daddy's arms.

Lane adored time with his big brothers, Trace and Hunter, and his sister, Mila. He loved watching movies with them, cuddling during quiet mornings, and watching hunting with daddy. Even in his short life, he created moments his family will hold onto forever.

Lane is the beloved son of Adam Gordon Stolecki and Alanna Theresa Stolecki. He is the cherished baby brother of Trace, Hunter, and Mila. He is lovingly remembered by his grandparents, Arthur and Kimberly Stolecki, and George and Elizabeth Constance, as well as his great-grandparents, John and Krystyna Stolecki, along with many extended family members who already loved him so deeply.

Lane will be remembered in the stories we share, the songs we sing, and the quiet moments when we feel him nearby. He will always be held close in the hearts of those who love him. He is our angel, the most beautiful boy in the sky.

In Lieu of flowers the family has requested friends and family to bring in children's books to make a small library in Lane's honor, or to make donations to the family.

A memorial gathering will be held for Lane on Saturday March 14 from 11:00 am until the time of service at 1:00 pm at Wm. Sullivan and Son Funeral Home 8459 Hall Road (3 Blks E. of Van Dyke) Utica.

Dearest Lane, you will be loved and remembered in the stories we read, the songs we sing, and the memories we share. You will always be held close in our hearts. We love you more than all the stars in the sky. You are the most beautiful boy. You are our angel. We will always love you . Love Mommy & Daddy.

“Sweet Lane, even though I never had the chance of meeting you in person, hold you, you were already loved. You were prayed for, dreamed about, and cherished from the very beginning. The bond of family does not depend on time — it lives in the heart — and you will always be our nephew. ❤️

We find comfort in knowing that Lane is now resting in the presence of the Lord, wrapped in perfect peace and joy. We imagine him now playing freely, surrounded by light and love, reunited in heaven with my sweet Georgina. What a beautiful thought — two precious angels together, two cousins, whole and joyful in the arms of God.

We may not understand why you are gone. We may never fully know the reasons behind this painful goodbye. But even in our sorrow, we hold on to hope. We trust in the Lord's will and His perfect plans, even when they are beyond our understanding. Our faith reminds us that God is near in our suffering, that He is rich in mercy, and that His promises are greater than our pain. Even through tears, we choose gratitude — because His Word teaches us to give thanks at all times, trusting that He remains good and faithful in every season.

“The Lord is close to the brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit.” — Psalm 34:18

Even in grief, we cling to His promise that He gathers, restores, protects, and keeps His children safe in His presence.

Lane, watch over your mom, dad, your siblings, and all of the family. Surround them with heavenly peace and strength in the days ahead. You will forever be part of this family's story — a story written in love, faith, mercy, and eternal hope.

Though our arms ache to hold you, we trust that this goodbye is not forever. One day, by God's grace, we will see you again.

Until then, sweet boy, we love you. Always and forever. ☐

“ I'm so deeply sorry for the loss of your precious baby. There are no words big enough to hold this kind of heartbreak. Please know that you and your family are in my thoughts, and I'm holding you close in my heart during this unimaginable time. May you find comfort in the love that surrounds you and in the brief but beautiful light he brought into your lives.
