“ Oh Larry, I missed your day and am so sorry, Larry and I go back about 30 years, we would tell each other Tim Ryerson stories till we peed ourselves. You will be so missed by so many people including myself. So many stories about hunting and missed shots. My deepest heartfelt sympathy to Sue and John and the rest of their families.

“ My memories of Larry is that he was warm and kind-hearted and always gave great hugs. We saw Larry and Sue many times when our boys were little and when we still live on the east side of the state. Larry and Sue always made us feel like family. My boys, all grown up now, still call him uncle Larry. 😊 He definitely was a tough man! The leg accident didn't stop him. I remember cutting many of his pants' right leg and hemmed them for him. he was always so grateful. Larry will be missed!!

“ So long Larry,

Whats to say? Everyone has said it all. I will miss you Cuz, I'll miss all the phone chats and the laughter at both ends. The bullshit sessions in the woods or in the hunting shack were we laughed at each other until the tears rolled out. You were there when I or anyone else needed help and you and never asked for anything in return. I am saddened that you left but glad your pain has ended. The Lord has led you to Green Pastures and Quite Waters. Your soul is at rest now Larry and we will meet again. Laugh hard up there big man and dance your ass off. And just in case there are any deer up there remember to shoot straight. Excuses like my scopes off, the bullet hit a branch or the deer jumped aren't going to fly there. And lastly remember your Mom who you loved so much is up there with you and we all know what she said.....

“ I only saw Larry with Susie at family weddings and funerals but he was always upbeat no matter how he was feeling or what he was facing. You could always tell how much he loved Susie and was loved by many in return. His fabulous spirit will be missed but I am sure he remains around Susie and his family. My prayers are with Susie and his extended family. May God give them strength in the days ahead and comfort from the memories of Larry's love.

Yours was the deepest, richest laugh I've ever heard. You were a gentleman with the sweetest of manners. You were loyal and fair in all your dealings and your occasional anger was always deserved. Venison from you was the very best. Your love for Sue and John was matched only by their love for you. How like you to leave us all with such great memories.

“ I've your obit open on my desk top all morning trying to find some words, or a story but I think the best one just happened. Every time I closed one screen there is your handsome (haha) face smiling at me. I hear your laughter and cracking sarcastic jokes of me needing to get back to work. I love you very much and I know you know that. I will miss your sarcasm and laughter, your unconditional love and support, and apologizing to any guy I ever brought around for him being with me.

To the rest of the family, I send love and support for strength during this time.

All my love and strength,
Jessie

“ I will miss Larry so much. He is my 'go to' person when things get rough. He always cheered me up and made me laugh when I was feeling discouraged, even though he was going through much worse. Imagine that! The last thing he said to me was, "you know i'm not going anywhere!" I believe that...he will always be with us!

God's greatest gift to us was to have Larry as a neighbor for 25 years. Larry and Sue played a huge role in raising our sons to be the wonderful young men they have turned into. We will deeply miss Larry and our long talks along the fence.

Love you...Johh, Jen, Calvin and Luke
