

Larry Miles Tinker Sr.

November 24, 1943 - December 7, 2022

Larry Tinker Sr. of Clinton Twp. MI, passed away on December 7, 2022. Beloved husband of Sandra Tinker, and loving father of Brian (Donna) Tinker, Larry Jr. (Lisa) Tinker, and Kerri (Joseph) Kilcoyne. Brother of William Tinker, Ben (Norma) Tinker, Sandy Joyner, and Norman Tinker.

Cherished grandfather of Brianna (Harris) Richardson, Mary (Dario) Dipaola, Zach (Sarah) Tinker, Abigayle (Khristian) Goode, Brendan (Alyssa) Tinker, Alexis Kilcoyne, Joshua (Jenna) Tinker, Cody Kilcoyne, Shane Tinker, Kingston Kilcoyne, Danielle Turowski (bonus granddaughter), and great grandfather of Hailey Richardson.

Larry retired from General Motors after working with them for 43 years. He was also a founding member of Riverwood Community Church. He was a faithful servant of the Macomb County Jail Ministry and Martha T. Berry for 18 years. Larry was one of the godliest men the world has ever known. He is exactly where he wanted to be most, with The One he talked about most and dancing in his heavenly body with Jesus. Words can't describe the type of husband, father, grandpa, and friend he was. No one knew better how to make all of his family feel loved & special. He loved his family so much & we will miss him more than anything. He has certainly left a deep hole in our lives, but we know he is where he's suppose to be. However, Larry's greatest legacy is that all of his children and grandchildren know, love and serve the Lord.

Larry is irreplaceable and will be missed by everyone. His life is an example to us all through his devotion to God, his family, and the church. He gave his family the greatest gift by sharing his love for his Savior Jesus Christ.
