“ David and I just saw today (9/16) about Laura's passing. We are so sorry that we were not able to extend our deepest sympathies and attend the service. We always looked forward to seeing your Mom. Even recently, as we went on a walk, she would wave at us. We will miss her. We remember with great fondness your Dad, his Mother, and now your Mom. - Maureen Kennedy and David Reed

We were so sorry to hear the news about Laura. She was a beautiful person, inside and out. The best of neighbors, along with Earl. I will miss our conversations about vegetable and flower gardens, fabric finds, and especially, hearing the updates of children and grand children. Take care in the time ahead. Love to you all.

Laura Bossenberry and Camille Bossenberry are twins. Mrs. Bossenberry was been such a compelling woman in my childhood. Camille being one of my most treasured childhood friends. She always expressed herself with such grace, dignity, and a regal beauty. My deepest condolences to the entire Bossenberry clan. Such a beautiful family and such a proud legacy. My heart is with you at this difficult time and I hope you know how much I care 🙏 Kelly Susanne Geer

“ The entire Thom family is saddened to hear of your Mom's passing. What a GREAT LADY!!! We have been extremely blessed to know your Mom (and Dad) for so many years as a friend and a neighbor. She created so many memories for our children (her practice grandkids, as she called them). Bridgette and Monica still talk about the tea parties at Melanie's Mom's house. As hard as it is that she has left us, please find comfort that she and your Dad are together again.

*Much Love,
The Thoms*

Zachary and Monica flew in from New York or wherever and showed up at the Church. “Come Over Here! A Classic. The Thom's were a special family to my Mother. And they started as “Across the Street Neighbors”. It grew into a life-long relationship. But most remarkable was that all parties never let go. They never quit and never lost touch. Bound by much more than just a neighbor across the street.
