“ Dear Scott Family, I would like to extend my sincere condolences to each of you. Although we are not acquainted personally, however, we are acquainted with the pain of losing a loved one in death. The touching words of Psalm 34;18 assure us that when we are "broken at heart," Jehovah, like a loving parent, "is near" - ever watchful, attentive, and ready to help. Psalm 147;1,3 A key to enduring your loss is knowing that the Bible teaches that "there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous" Acts 24;15, and those sleeping in the graves will come forth and have the opportunity to live forever in God's new world right here on earth. John 5;28,29; Rev. 21;3,4 While grief at the loss of Laura is great, joy at receiving Laura in the resurrection will be greater. Mark 5;42 Please read and find peace in God's promises during this difficult time and the days to come. Take care,
