“ Please accept my condolences for your loss. Tho I haven't had contact for many years, I have many memories of Larry. We grew up in the same neighborhood and shared many happy days and some sad ones too. I'm sure he will be missed by all. Special thoughts to Rosie, hope she can find comfort in knowing her old friends remember. Prayers and thoughts for all the Family. Marian

“ To Mary and the family, you have my condolences. As you know, Larry was one of my dearest friends. Whether it was with the racecars or snowmobiling in the UP, we always had a respect for each other. He loved his family and his friends. I will never forget him. May God take care of him and his family. Larry, may you rest in peace. "Crow"
