“ Darty, My heart goes out to you and your family. Larry fought hard and you were with him by his side the whole time. You all are a courageous family and Larry sounded like a wonderful man. Your family will be in my prayers and thoughts and if you need anything you know where to find me to talk. *hugs*

“ Darty, I wept for you when I read your email. I know that you and your children have wonderful memories of Larry, and nothing can take away those memories. He is at peace with our Lord now. Rather than mourn the absence of the flame, Celebrate how brightly it glowed!
