“ Larry will be missed by The Blackmon Family. We are praying for yo Sue. Larry was one of our favorite neighbors. We appreciate all of his kind deeds toward us in helping us in our yard. Giving us guidance on how to arrange our flowers. I will always remember the Red Wagon he gave me to transport my yard equipment. We endearingly called him Look out Larry, because he was always looking out for others.

Rest in Peace Larry

“ As Gary so sweetly said: "We loved Larry and will miss him terribly. His sense of humor, his experiences and outlook on life . . . he was a great man. His love for UofM, Trains, and his zest for life was inspirational," God just got a huge hug." We love you and will miss you Larry Iacoboni (Loved your last name too, fitted you perfectly :)), Love Mel and Gar Olson. PS: I agree with Mark, Larry's love for you Sue was adorable, sweet and made me giggle. Love you both !!

“ I drove by Larry and Suzanne's house everyday as I lived on the end of their road, noticed the racing swag in his garage one day, so I stopped to say HI to Larry as he was working out the in the yard...we had a nice chat...and next thing you know,,,I'm a member of the MARFC! Crazy how things come together sometimes....

I'm glad we met that day, God Bless You and Your Family

“ He will be greatly missed by many, for he shared so much with others. Always a smile.
He gave a good fight always when needed. So very sad but happy that he is a peace now.

Thinking of the family in prayer.
