“ *To Ellen and Eleanor:
Know that you have our profound condolences about the too-early loss of Larry. Our memories are of your steadfast friendship and support in past election campaigns and Larry's willing and effective joining-in after becoming part of your family. He was a good guy and our world feels a lesser place in his absence.*

*Love,
Shirley Johnson and husband Cliff*

To Larry's Family

I'm new on the block but I can say that Larry always made it a point to talk with me or Linda on his walks with the dog. He had a way of making you feel welcome with his friendly smile and genuine interest in what you were doing. That is a rare quality that is missing in our fast paced world - never time to just chat for no reason. I will miss that.

Who can understand the ways of the Lord in taking Larry at such a young age. Know one can understand or explain God's ways or wisdom. I know I have been blessed in knowing Larry and you Ellen over these past few years.

You have friends and neighbors that will be there for you and your needs in the coming days. May we not forget you.

Your neighbors Brian and Linda

*Ellen,
So shocking and sad. I just saw Larry mowing his lawn while I was walking our dog. He was always so nice. I remember him returning our dog, Oakley, when she wandered over to your street. He asked her to go home and followed her safely to us.
Our thoughts and prayers are with you,
John, Debbie and Matt Paradiso*

That is a smile that I will forever miss. Could always count on you Larry to help out in anyway and tell a good story to make me laugh...and laugh we did many times. From Allied to Banks, you always took great pride in your work and always knocked it out of the park!! I am blessed to count you as a friend and will cherish the memories.

“ Ellen, Leslie, Joe & family -- have been thinking fondly about when our families were all together for that home-hosted brunch not so long ago, and appreciating the hospitality and affection that your family has shown us for as long as I can remember. His warmth, humor and that wonderful smile will be truly and deeply missed by all of us -- you are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ LARRY was a kind & handsome SOUL! He always gave his full attention w/sincerity. His blue eyes & soft caring words will never be forgotten. In fact, they can be seen thru his son, Joe & our Angel Princess, Avery (grand-daughter)...I am sure your SPIRIT is soaring in the heavens so just take the time to be a guardian for them along w/entire family too!

With kindest regards & love, Geri/GG
