“ I worked daily with Larry for about five years at Ford in Dearborn through Cosworth. I was a technical writer/training developer there and created slides he then would tweak and take out to Ford plants in North America. He and I, and others, would go out to lunch together. It was a good time. He would tell me of his family and friends. I have missed him. Best to all, George Beals.

“ I'm very sorry for your loss. Larry was a very intelligent and good man. I was a Trainer with him at Raytheon and learned a lot from him. He was very proud of his family and accomplishments. I still share some of the stories he told me with others, he will never be forgotten.
