“ I will remember Aunt Lenore as a woman of great faith with devotion to the Blessed Mother.
She was always upbeat, kind, caring and generous.

MY

“ I will miss grandma's stories and jokes so much. I feel incredibly blessed to have had her for the time she was here. Over the past year, I was so happy to see her so often. I loved spending time with her but most of all, I loved watching the relationship she developed with my girls. She and Abby had the best relationship. They could talk for hours. I'm going to miss hearing her say Abee-gail, tell us stories about the Emily she used to work with, and reminding her that she "was into the greats." Even though not having her here with us is heartbreaking, I'm so happy she is finally with the Lord.....And her love of 65yrs. Love you grandma ❤️
