“ We're so sorry for your loss. I am grateful for the years Lenore and my Dad had together. He was very happy with her. Unfortunately the last several times I saw Lenore she didn't know who I was but she sure remembered Homer and she still had such a sweet disposition. She is now in the arms of her LORD. Sincerely, Ed and Bonnie Wagman

“ Bob & Family, We know Lenore knew her lord Jesus. That is so rich a treasure after such a full life. We pray that knowledge will give you reason to celebrate in the midst of your sorrow. Always in Christ!

“ Your Mom did well getting to age 93. I remember you girls and her from Holy Cross where I was married into the Born family. Being Finnish as she was, we had that in common. Girls, check out finnishcenter.org, Newsletters, to see what happens there, and come over. It's across from Glen Eden. I lead the baking on 4th Wednesdays and sing with the Finnish American singers on Mondays. Ilene

“ Mom Adele and Aunt Lenore were especially close, so I spent many hours at her house, playing with Carol and Diane. I was especially impressed with their bunk beds which I had never seen before, the elaborate train set, and Aunt Lenore's date bars. When we both got much older, I used to visit her in her cozy apartment whenever I was in town. She loved going out for a Chinese or Indian lunch, and there was always much immoderate laughter at our table. Good-bye dear aunt. Elaine
