“ I’ve known Lee for close to 36 years. At various times she has been a friend, coworker, boss, mentor, and encourager. By far the greatest blessing is to have been able to call her friend. I’m so sad that she is gone, but so very, very grateful to have had her in my life.

My first girlfriend '52 - '54. We got back in touch about '97 and kept in touch as friends. I had not heard from her in some time and just now learned of her death. She was a good woman and I'm sure she was a good mother and wife and had a good career in municipal government.
