“ Dear Laura and Family, Words can not express the heartfelt loss of your Father. Laura, you are always there for each and every one of us to lend a helping hand, or listen, or pick up the pieces. We are all truly grateful to have you as our dear friend and we are sure that many of your wonderful qualities and sense of humor come from your Dad. May this poem author unknown give you some comfort and know that we are all here for you: A Dad is a person who is loving and kind, and he often knows what you have on your mind. He's someone who listens, suggests, and defends. A Dad can be one of your very best friends. He's proud of your triumphs but when things go wrong, A Dad can be patient & helpful & strong. And each day that passes, you're even more glad, more grateful and proud just to call him your DAD! With Love, The entire professional staff at the SCSFSC

“ Laura, We are so sorry to learn of your lost! Be strong for your mother and know that we are here for you. You have played a big part in the maturation of Kayla and Kimberly's life and we appreciate what you have done for both girls. It is now our part to give back to you - let us know what we can do!

“ Dearest Mrs. Jurasek, Laura and Dan, and Jim; We are honored to have had the pleasure of knowing your Dad for many years. Our memories of him will always warm our hearts and put a smile on our faces. His sense of humor and quick wit will forever leave us laughing. Every time we eat gnocchis or see an "Ice Show Security Guard", we will think of him with love. He has touched our lives and we will never forget. May you have peace and solace. All our love,
Marisa and Tullio
