“ I am so very sorry to hear of the passing of Leonard. Our community lost a great man. Leonard and I never formally met or became close friends but it was MCREST that bought a very strong bond between Leonard and I.

I decided to volunteer as a transporter for MCREST and Leonard was the coordinator of transportation. When I met him, I saw a man working very hard to make sure the less fortunate were transported anywhere they needed to go. I witnessed a man with passion who was driven to make sure these people were taken care of while on his watch.

He inspired me to commit myself to do the same. When someone inspires others to be a good shepherd of our lord they really are very good people and have earned their final reward to be with our Lord.

God bless Leonard and hold him in the palm of your hand. My thoughts and prayers are with the family of Leonard.

“ So many great memories of Uncle Leonard. He always welcomed me into his home, pretty much most of the summer and most school holidays. We ran amuck and he rarely complained but probably should have.

One memory that has always stuck in my mind was the time I got a piece of bark/tree (to me a stick or branch) in my eye. It hurt so much and I was so scared, plus we had to wake him up after a very long day. I will never forget how gentle and caring he was as he got that friggin' piece of tree out of my eye. He had such a soft side.

Thank you Uncle Leonard for always be so kind, generous and patient. And thank you for always accepting me as me. I will always cherish the love and interest you always showed me unconditionally. And every time I saw you I would ask how you were and I always could count on your reply.

*'I can't complain, no one will listen' -
Leonard Sienkowski*

Love you Uncle Leonard. I will see you later. Say hi to my dad for me.
