“ I have so many fond memories of our times at Faith Baptist Church and Sam's Bible studies. She was very kind, never meeting a stranger and always showing the love of Jesus. She will be missed by all who love her. Until we meet again in heaven.

I met Leonora thru my door to door ministry. That was in June in 1985. And I led her to the Savior. She has been such a dear friend to Marie and I ever since. We felt very close to her family as well through the years. We will miss her so much. But this is only a short pause in our friendship. Because we will meet again in heaven. Sam and Marie Decaro
