“ I met Lou many years ago thru the Knights of Columbus and took an instant liking to him. He was a very outspoken person, never afraid to let his opinion be known. I always admire that in a person. I am glad I saw him not too long ago. He was always welcoming and friendly to me. May he rest in peace and may his family remember the good times he enjoyed with them. We will all miss him, he was truly larger than life. Take care my friend.

“ Lew Boscaglia is my friend for 20+ years. He enjoyed sharing conversation about family, friends and activities; especially those involving Caiti and Nick. He loved his family so much and the pride he had in his wife and children just beamed out of him. Lew enjoyed volunteering at church, in the gym and on the playing fields; his pasta dinners at St. Thecla were awesome. Lew gave of himself to others every day and asked nothing in return. He loved to laugh, to smile and help out. I will miss my friend.
