

Lillian C. Rembelski

November 11, 1914 - August 27, 2006

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

“ Lillian C. Rembelski

March 25, 2023 at 11:03 AM

“ I will remember Aunt Lillian for her warm smile, kind nature, and her gift in the kitchen. She gave me the nickname of the Kilbasa Kid when I was about 10. We were gathered at Aunt Joan/Uncle Joe's house for a party and I'm sure I ate more than my share in order to receive that distinction. Hers was the best I've ever had. I was so sorry to hear that she was gone. Please accept my sincerest sympathies.

Cindy Jiovani - March 25, 2015 at 12:00 AM

“ I remember Tom's mom as a kind and personable lady. I spent some fun times at the house at six and sunset.

tim wardle - March 25, 2015 at 12:00 AM

“ I will always remember Aunt Lillian as the best polish cook! She and Mary cooked for our wedding 22 years ago. I have such fond memories of staying at your house with the store. I can see Aunt Lillian behind the meat counter and myself at the candy! It is so hard to say goodbye to our loved ones, but the memories are ours to keep. We are so sorry for your loss.

phyllis kelley rembelski - March 25, 2015 at 12:00 AM

PR

“ I will always remember Aunt Lillian as the best polish cook! She and Mary cooked for our wedding 22 years ago. I have such fond memories of staying at your house with the store. I can see Aunt Lillian behind the meat counter and myself at the candy! It is so hard to say goodbye to our loved ones, but the memories are ours to keep. We are so sorry for your loss.

phyllis kelley rembelski - March 25, 2015 at 12:00 AM

DD

“ There are no words that can ease your pain or be of help at such a time but Jan and I want you to know how deeply sorry we are. You are in our thoughts and prayers. It isn't given to us to understand the why of things. We can only trust in God's infinite love and in his promise that we go on to a better life where there is no pain or sorrow. Believe in that and have faith in His wisdom and healing. I hope in your sorrow you can find comfort in your loving memories of your mother. Look for the rainbow that gracious thing, made up of tears and light. -- Samuel Taylor Coleridge Please know you have our deepest sympathy. Dan & Jan

Dan & Jan DeRyckere - March 25, 2015 at 12:00 AM