“ Linda was a wonderful, special woman who would have done anything for anyone if she could have. She touched more lives than she realized. She was beautiful inside and out. She wanted nothing more than to love her husband and kids. She was very blessed to have met Paul, and have 3 wonderful kids. She loved them all so much. The turn out at the funeral home showed just how special she, Paul, Jenny, Christy and Zack are, and how many lives they have all touched. I could not have had asked for a better sister, or a better friend. She was always there when I needed her. God made Linda my sister, and he made her my friend. I will never forget her wonderful laugh, her beautiful smile, and her great sense of humor. I know she is with our mother and "granny" in heaven and looking out after us all. Linda you will be forever missed, and I hope you know how much I love you! Always have & always will. I love you Paul, Jenny, Christy and Zack. Suz

“ May God bless this wonderful man and his very special family. My baby sister was a one of a kind beautiful person and the loss we feel is tremendous. He had a plan when he brought Paul into her life; so He must have a greater plan for her now. Cocoa, I know you disliked goodbyes so I can't quite bring myself to say it. I will treasure my times with you forever, and then some! I love you Linda Lee! God Bless You Paul for every joy that you brought her; and it's easy to see that there were many of those moments. Thank you for loving her and taking care of all of her worldly needs.
