“ Linda will always hold a special place in my heart. She was one the first people I met when I started at the Police Department. I always enjoyed our conversations. I will always remember one special moment. When I went from police cadet to police officer, Linda knew I wanted one of the departments original badges which there was only one available at the time and even though one of the other cadets wanted it as well and was ahead of me in seniority she gave me badge 12. She told me you deserve it. True to her calm style she convinced an angry cadet that he really didn't want an old badge, he wanted a new one. He left her office happy and with a new badge. I wore that badge for many years and now display it proudly in my study. When I look at it I still remember that day in 1976.
Linda was a good person that will be missed but remembered by many like me.

“ Both my wife and I knew Linda for many years through work. She was always a kind dedicated person who made the Police Department a better place. She passed away much too young. Our thoughts are with the family and friends who will certainly miss her.
