“ Oh my.... what a sad loss. My husband Steve and I were just talking about Linda and wondering how she was doing. Though I have not connected with her for awhile, we had stayed in touch for many years even after we moved to Oregon 35 years ago. We go way back to Gesu grade school, then Immaculate High school, and we were pals for many years. Linda even lived with me just after I graduated from MSU in East Lansing. I will treasure her smile, her kindness, and her love of conversation. My prayers go out to Linda's family during this time of grief. She will be missed!

“ Words can't express the sadness I feel over the loss of my dear sister-in-law, "The Original Linda Samul". I was married to her late brother, Rick Samul, & since my name is Linda, I became humorously known as "Linda Samul the imposter". Linda & I became fast friends the day we met. We've shared many good times together, like horseback riding, many Samul family gatherings, &"L & L days", where we'd spend all day together, followed by an evening of fun, food & laughter, into the wee hours of the morning. She was the best cat mom ever, & introduced me to many a feline friend, which got me into rescuing kitties dropped off in the country where Rick & I lived. Linda was a friendly, outgoing & very social person, who made you feel comfortable to be around. She had the gift of gab, & always had a story to share. I will miss her very much, but grateful to have the fond memories, & to have had the unique experience of being sisters-in-law, who shared the same name. RIP Linda ❤️🙏

“ I can't tell you how shocked I was when I heard this news. While I didn't know Linda until our freshman year at Immaculata, I became friends with so many girls from Gesu there, including her. She always seemed happy every day, with that winning smile shown in the picture. When they were filming the movie 61* at the not-yet-demolished Tiger Stadium in 2001, she went with my daughter and I to sit in the stands and be extras, watching the movie being made. She was a large part of my teens and twenties, and while we lost touch over the years, I will always remember the love and friendship we shared in our early years. RIP Dear Friend
