“ Lisa was so kind. She loved her kids and was so talented. She made me my first waitress apron and always made me feel at home while visiting. She is still missed.

“ Dear family, I can't be there in person, but I am there in spirit. I know Lisa had a hard life, and an untimely demise through horrible circumstance. I choose to remember growing up with her; sweet, blonde Lisa who never had a bad thing to say about anyone. She was the peacekeeper, the pleaser, and full of caring for us all. She inherited her mother's talent for decorating. I will never forget all the plaques she made with those multiple layer paper scenes on them. My sympathy to our family, to those of you who miss the "real" Lisa, the person we all loved. May she finally have true peace in heaven. My love to you all.

“ I knew Lisa for many years. We were special friends and I appreciated her many good qualities and talents. I am deeply saddened at her passing at such a young age, leaving her dear children and other loved ones behind. My reflections include Lisa's love for her family and friends and her love of animals. Also, Lisa had a deep love for God and the Bible. We had many meaningful conversations about spiritual topics. I was impressed by Lisa's many talents such as home decor and home canning. My sincere condolences to all her relatives, her twin brother David, her sister I'm sorry, I forget your name, the father of her children, Jeff, and others. May you be comforted by your memories of a very special person, who touched my life. Lise Cyran
