“ My dear sweet Lois will be remembered every day in my prayers, along with my own wonderful mother, now too passed into the loving embrace of God and His eternal kingdom. Lois was a precious gift of God in my life, in my mother's life, in the lives of many people and I thank Him for bringing her into our lives. A bright spot, shiny, one of the most cheerful, joyful, encouraging, understanding, spirited souls I've had the privilege to be close to. Indomitable in courage, in faith, resilience. A true friend. Someone to laugh with, someone to cry with, someone who would cheer you on and whack you gently in the back of the head (metaphorically, that is) if you needed it. If I had to go to war, to face the battle of the "front line", Lois is one of the people I would want to go with me, to face it with, to have at my side. God has blessed us with this soul and I am so certain, in the very depth of my own poor soul, that He is blessing her now with unending joy, peace, light, love and happiness in her new Home with Him and all those who belong and are united with Him. Peace and Love, my dear sweet Lois! Hope to see you soon! Sr. Zelig Marie Mataragas, OCD
